

Ag Grow Consulting provides timely, unbiased and precise agronomic services to Saskatchewan farmers. Our services include field scouting, soil and tissue testing, variable rate applications and water management. We use local experience and research to power our recommendations.

Summer Student

Ag Grow Consulting is looking for an individual who has a good basic knowledge of agronomy, loves being outdoors and interacting with farmers! Working for Ag Grow Consulting, you will be part of a team that is supportive, connected and passionate about agriculture. We have a young, relatable, hands on management team that is happy to help by sharing their knowledge and experience.

Benefits of working for Ag Grow Consulting

- Competitive Salary
- Access to top of the line equipment - truck, quad, and cell phone
- Access to current technology and programs

Responsibilities of the role

- Crop Scouting - crop staging, weed, disease and insect identification
- Soil Testing – composite, variable rate
- Reporting findings back to advising Agrologist
- Sharing findings with team members and one on one with customers
- Provide agronomy ideas contributing to research and innovation

Qualifications of ideal candidates

- Be enrolled in a University Program
- Strong self-motivation and attention to detail
- Able to build rapport with customers and communicate with team members
- Tech Savvy

Professional development opportunities

- Public speaking and professional writing
- Develop communication skills by interacting one on one with customers
- Access to meetings, tours, updates

Application Process

- Email resume and cover letter to Wade & Kara Annand c/o jill@aggrowconsulting.com
- Include references
- In your resume include a social media handle